

Disclosure to Employment Applicant/Independent Contractor Regarding Procurement of a Consumer Report

In connection with your application for employment/independent contractor, we may procure a consumer report on you as part of the process of considering your candidacy as an employee or independent contractor. In the event that information from the report is utilized in whole or in part in making an adverse decision with regard to your potential employment, before making the adverse decision, we can provide you with a copy of the consumer report.

Please be advised that we may also obtain an investigative report including information as to your character, general reputation and personal characteristics. This information may be obtained by contacting your previous employers or references supplied by you.

The Fair Credit Reporting Act gives you specific rights in dealing with consumer reporting agencies. You will find these rights summarized in a document provided to you entitled, "Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act." By your signature below, you hereby authorize us to obtain a consumer report about you in order to consider you for employment. Your signature also acknowledges receipt of the document entitled, "Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act."

This report will be processed by:
United States Homeland Investigations, Inc.
P.O. Box 359
Mount Vernon, VA 22121

The report will be provided to the employer or company which you have authorized release of information. United States Homeland Investigations, Inc. only provides the information and does not have any part in the hiring process.

Applicant's Name:

(Please Print)

Applicant's Address:

Street Address

City/State/Zip

Signature: _____

Social Security Number: _____